All students are expected to observe the same code of academic honesty required of all University of Pittsburgh Students. The conduct below constitutes a violation of this code.

- Taking of Information
  - Copying graded assignments from another student.
  - Each written assignment must be the student's own work.
- Tendering of Information
  - Giving your work to another student to be copied.
- Plagiarism
  - To present as one's own work, the ideas, representations, or words of another, or to permit another to present one's own work without customary and proper acknowledgement of sources. (University of Pittsburgh Guidelines on Academic Integrity, p. 5)
- Honors Pledge
  - You will do the mid-term and the final exams for this course according to my "Honor System." Your signature, either typed or physically signed, on the exam verifies that you completed the exam independently. You may not collaborate with anyone.
